Brief Description	MCH Women in Construction (winc) is a pre-apprenticeship job training program that provides free career and technical training. It gives participants the opportunity to earn industry-recognized credentials that can help them pursue higher paying jobs in nontraditional sectors, including construction skilled craft trades and advanced manufacturing. The program also offers supportive services, including assistance with childcare, transportation, and job placement, in order to ensure women, leave the program prepared to go to work and are successful throughout their careers. Winc is an excellent resource for employers to find and employ qualified applicants to meet diversity, minority, and female hiring needs. Winc graduates help fill MS 's middle-skill employment gap and contribute to building a strong and diverse workforce in the state. In this way, the program also positively impacts the economic condition of communities in which women live, work and raise families.			Work activity center that provides support employment for individuals with disabilities.

Brief Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SUE'S HOME: Located in Ocean Springs, MS , Sue's Home is a long-term residential program for women and children. We accept women who have graduated from residential drug or alcohol treatment facilities or have been released from incarceration. We also accept women and children who find themselves homeless due to various economic situations. They can remain in Sue's Home for 6 months and may, after successfully completing the program, receive assistance with relocation, partial rent and utility deposits. The Transitional Program is a comprehensive, faith-based program designed to assist women who are dealing with the effects of abuse, homelessness, addictions and/or past incarceration. Our desire is to provide a safe, nurturing environment for women and their families as they work to 	LIHEAP Energy Assistance and CSBG and Weatherization	Our mission is to develop strategies to provide housing, community, and economic development in the coastal counties of MS . become self-sufficient, productive citizens in our communities and positive role models for their families.

- BREAKTHROUGH! Young Adult Program is specifically designed to meet the unique needs of 18 to 24-year-old, the fastest growing homeless population on the coast! Many of these vulnerable young adults are “aging out” of foster care and may have lived in multiple households and attended numerous schools and are particularly susceptible to human trafficking, addiction, and homelessness. Community Care Network, in collaboration with youth courts and another partner, now assists these young people by providing housing, Life Skills training, mentoring and counseling designed to address their unique needs and to encourage them to become self-reliant as they BREAKTHROUGH to a new future.
